Date & method of arrival: Mrs. Head brought them, 6-7-65.

PRELIMINARY DESCRIPTION: 2 letters and a number of receipted bills; these were found in a barn on property (presumably) owned by the Betts family named in the bills. No clue as to the provenance of the letters which are much older than the bills.

Letters are as follows:

1. Holliday, Virginia
   ALS to Parents
   Dated: April 9, 1861 [Utoy Post Office, Fulton Co.,] re: Family news, deaths etc. [spelling atrocious,]

2. ________?
   ALS to "Cousin"
   Dated: Georgia, Clark Co., June 5, 1858
   re: Trip to Athens, schools at or near gum spring
   [2 letters on one page, one incomplete, evidently the writer's copy. Almost illegible.]

SUBSEQUENT HISTORY

Receipted bills from following Athens firms:

Martin Brothers, Shoe repairs
Bernstein Bros. Furniture and undertakers
John White Welch, Cotton Factor
Athens Shoe Co.
Palmers' Drug Stores
Hardeman and Phirzy, Cotton Factors
Normal School Ginning and Rolling Co.
Athens Ice Co. Ginning Ticket
King-Hodgson Co. Wholesale & Retail Groc.
C.H. Dorsey, Clothier
Athens Banner
Southern Refining Co.
Klein & Martin Co.
PRELIMINARY DESCRIPTION

Charles Stern Co. Clothing

Most of these receipts are dated 1917, and are for goods sold to Howell P. Betts or Mrs. Leila or Lula Betts. One or two for cotton are to L. J. Whitehead or Mrs. L. J. "hitehead.

Tax receipts for Mrs. Lula Betts and Howell P. Betts for 1917.

Received notes and mortgages for property described as "part of the old Gilleland place, --- in Clarke County" bounded in part by "the road leading from Coonee Heights to the Poss Place." Property was apparently rented by Howell P. Betts from Mrs. Hattie Whitehead. Dated 1917.

SUBSEQUENT HISTORY

Other miscellaneous receipts, and 1 empty envelope addressed to Mr. C. C. Cearley, Blairsville, Ga. and postmarked March 20, 1916. The chief value of this collection lies in the picture it gives of purchases of an Athens rural family, and in the fact that it gives the names of firms in Athens in 1917.
DESCRIPTION The manuscript sheet music was composed by A. Cooke. Titled "Fanny Schottisch," it is dedicated to Miss Fanny Heard. It is done in ink, front and back, on printed musical composition pages.
DESCRIPTION Marion Heard of Oglethorpe County kept these commonplace books probably shortly after the conclusion of the Civil War. Included in them are the words to many popular songs of the day and some very obscure and perhaps locally written ones. An index is located in the back of the first volume listing such titles as "Carolina & Georgia Boys," "Green Old Hills," and "Sailor Boys Carol."
DESCRIPTION

Stephen Heard, 1740-1815, was a Colonel in the Revolutionary War and a Governor of Georgia 1780-1781. This family history gives information about Stephen Heard and the descendants of Heard and his second wife Elizabeth Dardin, whom he married in 1785. Several pages are signed by Mrs. Robert Hampton (Bevel Comer), great-granddaughter of Stephen Heard.
The Thomas Heath Collection contains primarily the military records of First Lt. Tommy Heath who served in Europe in World War II and was killed in the Korean War.

Heath was born in Tonkawa, Oklahoma in 1918 and graduated from high school there in 1938. He graduated from Northern Oklahoma Junior College in 1940. He was a star athlete at both schools. He worked as an athletic coach and later as an ROTC instructor at Mercer University in Macon. He married Vivian Deen of Alma, Ga. in 1947.

Heath saw action at the Normandy beachhead and earned his commission while in Europe. In November 1950 he was sent overseas and was wounded on Feb. 17, 1951. He chose to return to active duty and was killed on Heartbreak Ridge on Sept. 21, 1951.

The collection contains a scrapbook compiled by Vivian Heath which includes most of the non-official records of his stay in Korea, as well as earlier clippings and keepsakes.

Harold M. Heckman was professor of accounting for many years at the University of Georgia. Contains awards, clippings, and some correspondence.
Three letters and two post cards written by or concerning Leslie D. Hedges, Richmond, Indiana. Three pieces of correspondence are written from Hedges to his wife while he was in training at various military posts. Two pieces of correspondence were written to Hedges' wife after he was killed in 1944.
This collection contains the letters of Francis Marion Coker, Sr. to his wife Sarah (Sallie) Alice Reid Coker during his service as a soldier in the Confederate Army in Virginia. This is possibly our best small collection of soldier's letters. Coker was well-educated with a knack for writing. Letters contain excellent descriptions of camp life, i.e., food, marches, sickness, clothing, prices; he describes places, people, battles, victories, defeats, retreats, possibility of foreign intervention. Good running account of the 7 days battles before Richmond; he discusses camp politics, conduct of officers, doctors, etc. Describes fighting around Fredericksburg and battlefield; Petersburg; comments on Sherman and the march thru Georgia. A few of the letters are from Mrs. Coker to Coker, and two or three are business letters.

Francis Marion Coker, Sr. (1827-1905) planter, banker, Confederate soldier; b. Elbert Co., Ga. lived in Americus, Ga. and Atlanta, Ga. m. Sarah Alice Reid Johnson (1836-1916) housewife, lived in Putnam Co., Ga., Americus, Ga., and Atlanta, Ga. Their daughter Indianola (India) m. J.C. Hodgson. Florence Hodgson Heidler was their daughter and the granddaughter of F.M. and Sallie Coker.

Complete Calendar of letters in working folder—Also additional Genealogy.
DESCRIPTION

Robert B. Heilman's The Ghost on the Ramparts and Other Essays in the Humanities (Athens: University of Georgia Press, 1974) presents fourteen essays on the teaching of English and the profession of the humanities. Included are uncorrected and corrected typescripts, mock-ups, proofs, transparencies, jacket proofs, and galleys. In addition there is a small suite of letters concerning the production of the book.

Heindel, Sydney C.
Sydney C. Heindel papers, 1943-1946.
.5 linear ft.

Sydney C. Heindel, soldier with the U.S. Army's Ordnance Heavy Automotive Maintenance Company, stationed in China and India during World War II.

The collection mainly consists of correspondence of Sydney C. Heindel to his parents in Cornelia, Georgia, from 1943-1946. Heindel's letters (1943-1944) detail his training at military camps and schools in California, Nebraska, and at the Army Specialized Training Program at Stanford University (Calf.). From 1945-1946, Heindel writes first from China, then India, describing his duties with the Maintenance Company, the locales and people, news of family and friends, books he has read, and military social life.

Marion R. Hemperley papers, 1744-1993 (bulk 1968-1987)
6.75 linear ft.

Marion Ridley Hemperley (1923-1998), Deputy Surveyor General of Georgia and author, lived in Fayetteville, Georgia.

The collection consists of writings, printed material, maps, clippings, photographs and artifacts.

Dr. John H. Goff (1899-1967) was an author and professor emeritus at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. Prior to his death in 1967, Dr. Goff gave his collection of historical data to the Georgia Surveyor General Department and a portion of his collection to his friend Marion Hemperley. This material included preliminary notes for articles, working copies of Georgia county maps, and the incomplete manuscript for “Off to Alabama.” Dr. Goff asked Hemperley to complete some of his writings and this collection contains research and notes pertaining to this project.

The research material in the collection consists mainly of photocopies, although there are original items in the Campbell County folder.

DESCRIPTION

These three items discuss the genealogy of the William Henry Family. William Henry was born in Virginia circa 1760-1762. He lived in North Carolina, South Carolina, and was living in Gwinnett County in 1820.
Ms 65

Edward Stevens Henry, 1836-1921.
Edward Stevens Henry papers, 1858-1921.
3 linear ft.

Arranged by record type.

The collection consists of papers of Edward Stevens Henry from 1858-1921. The papers include correspondence (1886-1921), account books (1858-1862), letter books (1898-1904), and a scrapbook of newscuttings (1900-1901). The correspondence and letterbooks document Henry's service as a Connecticut legislator, State Treasurer, Mayor of Rockville, and as a U.S. Congressman. Includes correspondence with constituents, fellow legislators, and government departments. The account books, probably from Henry's dry-goods business in Rockville (Conn.), include name of customer, list of items purchased, and price.

Hicks, Henry, b. 1834 or 1835
Henry Hicks ledgers, 1843, 1852-1873
1 linear ft.

Henry Hicks was a physician in Wrightsville, Georgia (Johnson County). He was the son of James Hicks (1799-1888) and Mary Pullen Hicks. His first wife was Mary Frances Wright (1837-1864) and his second wife was her sister Nancy Wright. Hicks enlisted in Company F, 14th Regiment (“Johnson Grays”) on July 11, 1861, but refused to take the oath of service, possibly because it was contrary to his physician’s oath to save lives.

The collection consists of three ledgers and several loose papers. The first ledger, 1852-1856, contains medical lecture notes taken while Hicks was a student at the Medical College of Georgia, graduating in 1853. The notes are from lectures given by such physicians as Dr. Louis A. Dugas and Dr. Paul F. Eves. The remainder of the ledger contains patient accounts listing name of patient, services provided, charges and medicine dispensed.

The second ledger, 1853-1861 and 1863-1873 contains patient accounts as in the first ledger. Both ledgers also list the mileage Hicks charged as he traveled to visit his patients.

The third ledger, 1853-1855, also contains patient accounts.

The loose papers include a Freedmans list, an IOU, and a list of accounts. These accounts appear to be from an estate sale on December 28, 1843 and list household goods, livestock and slave names.

Arranged by record type.

Edward Seymour Hicks (1871-1949), British actor, manager, and author. He was active in building the Globe, Queen's, and Aldwych theaters. He married actress Ellaline Terriss.

The collection consists of papers of Sir Seymour Hicks from 1815-1948. The collection includes loose correspondence (1856-1948), invitations, autographs, newspaper clippings, photographs, and scrapbooks. The scrapbooks contain photographs of various British actors and actresses and correspondence. The collection includes material on such well known individuals as David Lloyd George, the Earl of Westmoreland, Lord Cromer, who was Lord Chamberlain, Gerald DuMaurier, Maude Adams, George M. Cohan, and Consuelo Marlborough.

Congratulating him on election to public office.

SUBSEQUENT HISTORY
DESCRIPTION

Writing to J.H. Scott on 24 December 1862 from his home in LaGrange, Hill discusses the settling of the estate of N. Tompkins and other financial arrangements noting that "I should like to pay it by or before 1st Jany as by the 8 of that month I leave for Richmond."

Hill's political career in Georgia and the Confederacy was most impressive, defeating Robert Toombs for a seat in the Confederate Senate.
DESCRIPTION  Symbols and Society, edited by Carole E. Hill and a product of the University of Georgia Press, is number nine in the Proceedings of the Southern Anthropological Society under the general editorship of Irma Honigmann. Included in this collection are the original corrected typescript for the work, various proof sets, galleys, and mock-ups, containing both printer's notes and textual corrections.

PRELIMINARY DESCRIPTION

Collection covers fairly fully the last two years of Chancellor Hill's tenure of office. Due to a fire in 1903 which destroyed his papers prior to that date, the bulk of this material falls within the years 1904-05. The collection contains correspondence, annual reports, statements re faculty, departments, budget and speeches, connected with the administration of the University.

SUBSEQUENT HISTORY

Note:
Mr. Kellam is in communication with some of Chancellor Hill's descendants and hopes we will get some other papers of Chancellor Hill to add to this Collection.

UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES    PRESIDENT'S PAPERS
Walter B. Hill family papers, 1818-1941.
27.5 linear ft.

Arranged by record type.

Walter Barnard Hill (1851-1905), lawyer, educator, chancellor at the University of Georgia (1899-1905), resided in Macon and Athens, Georgia. Hill married Sallie Parna Baker and their children included Parna B., Mary Minot, Roger M., and Walter Barnard, Jr.

The collection consists of papers of Walter B. Hill and the Hill family from 1818-1941. The papers include correspondence, legal documents from Hill's law practice, notebooks containing Hill's law lectures or class notes, an 1878 diary of Hill's daily activities, photographs, scrapbooks of clippings documenting Hill's career, speeches, and writings of Hill, letterbooks, and printed material pertaining to temperance activities in Georgia and the United States. The correspondence is mostly between family members discussing personal business but a few pertain to Hill's professional career and discuss education in Georgia, politics, or articles written by Hill. Correspondents include Hill's parents Mary Clay Birch Hill and Barnard Hill, his brother Herbert C. Hill, his wife Sallie Parna Barker (Hill), and children Parna B. Hill, Mary Minot (Brown), and Roger M. Hill. The letterbooks (1888-1893 and 1898-1899) mainly pertain to Hill's law practice with the firms of Hill & Harris (Macon, Ga.) or Hill, Harris and Birch (Macon, Ga.) but also include information on Hill's activities with the Georgia Bar Association and temperance societies.

After Hill's death in 1905, the correspondence is between Sallie B. Hill, Parna B. Hill, Mary M. Brown, and Walter B. Hill. Much of the materials pertain to Sallie's work with farmer's wives as part of the University of Georgia's extension service, Parna's activities with canning and poultry clubs through the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, and both women's service with the League of Women Voters of Georgia.

Correspondence for August-September, 1919 is restricted.

Hillyer family.
Hillyer family papers, 1805-1990 (bulk 1805-1874).
.75 linear ft.

Arranged by subject.

Shaler Hillyer (1776-1820) married Rebecca Freeman, lived in Wilkes County, Georgia. Children: John Freeman, Junius, and Shaler Granby. After Shaler's death, the family moved to Athens, Georgia to facilitate the boys' formal education. Junius Hillyer (1807-1886), lawyer, judge, politician, married Jane Selina Watkins Foster, October 6, 1831.

The collection consists of the papers of the Hillyer family from 1805-1990 with the bulk between 1805-1874. Materials from the early years (1805-1819) pertain to Shaler Hillyer and consist of a letter and account book describing Petersburg, Elbert County, Georgia. The collection contains a memoir written by Junius Hillyer describing life on his family's plantation, slavery, the family's move to Athens, Georgia (1821), Junius' attendance at grammar school, descriptions of and activities at Franklin College (University of Georgia). Also includes photocopies of letters from William Dickerson and Peter Wellborn Martin, friends of the Hillyers; materials pertaining to the publication of THE LIFE AND TIMES OF JUDGE JUNIUS HILLYER; and dedication of a marker at the Freeman Hillyer homeplace in Popular Grove, Georgia.

Hillyer, Carlton.
Carlton Hillyer diaries, 1859-1895.
3 v.

The collection consists of diaries of Carlton Hillyer for 1859, 1861-1865, 1892-1895. The 1859 diary was kept by Hillyer while a student at the Union Academy (Washington, D.C.) and while the entries mainly document Hillyer's activities and lessons at school, he also discusses current events including the war in Europe, tensions in Mexico, local news of politics and court trials, and agriculture. The 1861-1865 diary contains writings of Hillyer including essays, poems, and translations of other's works. The 1892-1895 journal contains notes, probably used for newspapers columns, and clippings from the Augusta Chronicle of columns written by Issacher Marx.

Also known as the Stevens Thomas collection.

PRELIMINARY DESCRIPTION

3 p. typescript. Note on top of 1st page: "(Written in ink and copied by her great-granddaughter, Lorena Hillyer Fox.)"

An account (evidently taken from a diary) of a trip to Texas made in 1847-49, by the Hillyer family who lived for a while in Galveston, then moved to Goliad. Mr. Hillyer was evidently a preacher. They took with them (or as she expressed it) "set off for this new country accompanied only by our children & of them, eleven servants of different ages, piano, clothing, bedding, seraphine violin and flute..."

Note: John Freeman Hillyer was the eldest son of Petersburg merchant Shaler Hillyer and his wife, Rebecca Freeman Hillyer.
Hine, Lewis Wickes, 1874-1940.
Lewis Wickes Hine photographs, 1909-1913.
1 linear ft.

Lewis Wickes Hine (1874-1940), documentary photographer, in 1908 he was hired by the National Child Labor Committee to document child labor conditions in the United States.

The collection consists of photographs by Lewis W. Hine from 1909-1913 depicting child laborers in Georgia. The photographs show mill children at their work or grouped before the mills. A few of the photographs show the shanty towns surrounding the mills where the children lived with their families. The collection includes photographs from the following Georgia mill sites: Augusta, Columbus, LaFayette, Lindale, Macon, Rome, Rossville, Tifton, and Valdosta.

Unnumbered,
Inspector in Yarn Mill.
Picture Unnumbered,
Joys and Sorrows of Immigrant Life.
DESCRIPTION These two typewritten reports, "A Historical Sketch of the Evolution of Trade and Transportation at Augusta, Ga." and "A Historical Sketch of the Evolution of Trade and Transportation at Macon, Ga.," were presented by E. H. Hinton, chairman, The Southeastern Freight Association, at the meeting of Executive Officers, 17 -- 18 January 1912, at the Hotel Belleview, Belleair, Florida.

The reports chronicle in great depth the development of commercial interests in these two Georgia cities. Each report also contains "A Synopsis of the Rate Adjustment from the East."

DESCRIPTION: A collection of 229 architectural blueprints of 39 Georgia buildings of historical significance (see attached lists). Some of the blueprints are negatives, some positives, and many are duplicates.

The Historic American Buildings Survey was organized in 1933 to create a permanent graphic record of the existing architectural remains of early dwellers in this country. The Survey was initially Federally funded under the Civil Works Administration but later operated under the aegis of the National Park Service, American Institute of Architects and the Library of Congress with WPA funding until 1941. These blueprints are copies from the Library of Congress Archives.

TOTAL: 222 negative and positive blue prints
A group of transcription of various Colonial, State and Municipal documents copied by the Historical Records Survey of Georgia. There is a listing of some vital statistics. These are a list of books, not the actual vital statistic. This was part of the collection given when the Atlanta Works Progress administration office closed.

A calendar to the documents was compiled by Susan Tate and accompanies the collection.
Accession No. 1288
Date 17 March 1978
Name of Collection Historic Records Survey, Georgia, County Records.

Given by: Works Progress Administration Office in Atlanta when it closed.

DESCRIPTION
A collection of 368 booklets dealing with newspaper clippings, court minutes, and minutes of various county departments. Some are typescripts, carbon copies of the typescripts, and handwritten copies of the original county records. These were compiled by the Historical Records Survey from 1938 - 1941, and were deposited in the Atlanta office. When the WPA office closed, the records were dispersed to various institutions in Georgia. A calendar compiled in 1971 by Susan Tate accompanies the collection.

3:3 Minutes, Ordinary and Judge of Probate Court
Volume A. (For County Purposes)
May 8, 1869 - Sept. 25, 1872
Note on cover: While this volume is "for county purposes," it is little more than a register of County Warrants of Orders. The Ordinary also used it for Homesteads, Habeas Corpus cases, liquor licenses, apprentice orders, administration matters, lunacy cases and other affairs that do not come under the heading of County Purposes.
H.C. Moore

3:4 Minutes of the Commissioners of Roads and Revenues of the County of Baldwin, Georgia
Sept. 19, 1938 - Sept 2, 1941
From volume "Minutes Baldwin Court of Ordinary 1872 - 1892"
Note on cover: This volume was used by the Ordinary for the recording of his transactions (chiefly county orders) from 1872 - 1892. Then taken over in 1889 by the county commissioners. The usual entry in the later recordings is made by pasting a typed sheet into the volume. Some of the recordings are miss-placed [sic] and older records are pasted in wherever a blank space was found.
H.C. Moore
3:5 Baldwin County Superior Court
Grand Jury Presentments
1810 to May Adj. Term, 1861
Note on cover: Due to destruction of the Court House by fire in 1861 (mentioned in the last presentment) this county has no book records prior to March 1861 for the Superior Court. The enclosed presentments, therefore, have been copied from the files of old newspapers in the library of Georgia
State College for Women. Many dates are missing.

DESCRIPTION

Included in this collection are four bound volumes of recollections of Mrs. Hitchcock and her mother, Columbia Jefferson King Mankin (1873-1958). The two volumes written by Columbia Mankin recount her life in the Missouri Ozarks and include some family history. These are entitled Dear Descendents. Mrs. Hitchcock’s first volume, Dear Grandchildren, deals with her early years in Missouri and forty years in Athens, Georgia. Joyce and the Little People, the second of Mrs. Hitchcock’s books, is filled with anecdotes of her children growing up in the "Five-Points Area" of Athens. This is primarily written for children and is illustrated by Pearl Cox, a resident of Athens.
DESCRIPTION

This is a compilation of experiences of the people living in Lanier Gardens, a retirement home. It was compiled by Mrs. Hitchcock and illustrated by Mrs. Helen Cooper. Also included is a separate illustration of one of the residents, Leslie Kilgore.
